

Agenda, NPIC 2014

Sunday, July 13

6:30 pm

Enjoy a great barbeque with the meat prepared by

The pork is provided by

Take this opportunity to compare notes with the “who’s who” in the pork industry.

Monday, July 14

6:30am

Buffet Breakfast available

8:00am

“Controversies, Debates and Social Action related to Environmental Issues”

Dr. Patrick Moore was Co-Founder of Greenpeace and has been an international leader in the environmental movement for forty years. He is author of “Confessions of a Greenpeace Dropout”. Come hear his perspective on what it means to be a “Sensible Environmentalist”.

“What are Consumers Saying and How We’ll Work Together to Meet Their Needs”

Our packer panel will each share their thoughts, then take your questions.

The panel will be moderated by Attorney Mark Dopp, American Meat Institute’s General Counsel & Sr. VP for Regulatory Affairs.

Panel includes these leading packer representatives:

Todd Neff, VP, Procurement, Tyson Fresh Meats

Jesse Dohlman, Director of Procurement, Farmland Foods

Dan Groff, Director, Business Development, Clemens Food Group

Carl Hermreck, VP, Sales, Cargill Pork

Rob Kastens, VP, Sales, IPC

“A Global Perspective of Protein Demands/Production”

Deborah Perkins, Rabobank

Ms Perkins is the former Head of Food & Agribusiness Research and Advisory for Rabobank International and the Current Head of the Rabobank Corporate Banking Office in Dallas.

We welcome Deborah Perkins back to our NPIC stage.

Noon

Group Lunch sponsored by the National Pork Board